

Autumn is in the Air!

The seasons may be changing but your support has been unwavering. It is your dedication to Helping Hands: Monkey Helpers that drives us to take the best care of the recipients we serve and the monkeys we train and place.

In this issue of Monkey Business, join us as we celebrate National Veterinary Technician week. We are fortunate to have two vet techs on staff at Helping Hands. Learn about the important role they play here at The Monkey College.

A proper diet is vital for the health of our capuchins. You can learn more about their eating habits below. Is there anything else you've always wanted to know about Helping Hands? Now is your chance to Ask Me Anything! We'll select some of the most interesting questions to highlight in our next newsletter.

Your continued generosity all year long has allowed us to maintain the highest level of excellence in both our placement program and our monkey care. For that we thank you.

Enjoy all the beauty that the season has to offer.
